TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 19.

FLEECING A FARMER .- Bunco men of Lancaster, Pa., have fleeced another victim, Jacob Rohrer, a prominent and wealthy old farmer, out of $5,000. Bohrer, who had business in the place, went there. When he was about to leave he was approached by a well dressed young man who gave his name as Bausman, and said he was a neph. ew of Jacob Bausman, a prominent and wealthy chizen. He also said he was employed in the Farmers' Bank. This statement attracted Phorer's attention, and he was asked to accompany the young man on the pretence that he was distributing agritutural libraries worth $40 free of charge. cultural libraries worth $40 free of charge. Entirely and the pretence date of the pretence date of the pretence date of the pretence of the prete business in the place, went there. When private room on Queen street, where he was met by another man, about forty five years old, and who was introduced. The trio had a short talk about the agricultural library. Finally the elder produced a pack of cards. Robrer seemed to be completely taken in, and before he knew it the sharper announced that he had drawn $2,000, and the money was counted down on the table. Just then there was a balt, and the buuco men asked Rohrer for evidences of his responsibility, and he went and had a note indorsed and discounted, and produced $5,000 in money. When he had counted it out on the table the elder bunco steerer grabbed the whole pile and said Rohrer had lost the money. Some hot words ensued, but after being essured that the money was safe Rohrer, accompanied by the young man who pretended that he had $2,000, also went out and took a walk. The young man then excused himself, saying he would soon return with a bond to secure Rohrer from loss. He came not, and the rich old farmer has learned a lesson which he will doubtiess never forget. The rascals have not been seen since

SOUNE TO MOTHERS

MRS. WISLOW'S SCOTHING SYRUE, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Alexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has be invaluable. The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa-Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will. as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Rich mond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
